

Press Release Photo Sheet: The Cincinnati Woman's Club Scholarship Program – The World is Your Oyster
October 21, 2025

The Cincinnati Woman's Club (cincinnatiwomensclub.com)(CWC) recently honored and awarded 24 exceptional young women with financial support for their education, a time-honored tradition for the CWC, reaching back 97 years.

The scholars attend University of Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky University, and Mount St. Joseph University and have chosen a wide variety of studies.

CWC: Left to Right: Paula McIntosh, Susan Awadalla, CWC President: Susan Deye, Jeri Ricketts, and Evi McCord

CWC Scholarship Recipients and CWC Members enjoy celebrating together at the Annual CWC Scholarship, "The World is your Oyster." Event on October 21, 2025.

Left to right:

Scholarship Recipients: Marissa Lawry and Brianna James with CWC Members Karen Neyer, Pat Mezinskis, and Aurora Bennett

CWC Members Marty Humes, Moira Grainger, Kay Smith-Yount, and Susan Bierer

CWC Scholarship Recipients and CWC Members:

Left to right:

CWC Members, Kacey Schmitt, and Cheri Misleh, Scholarship Recipients: Sylvan Evard, and Emily Reichard, CWC Member, Diana Collins, and Nippert Scholar, Samantha Pape, a Vocal Performance Major at Cincinnati Conservatory of Music

2025-26 CWC Scholars with CWC Mentors celebrate. CWC members serve as mentors during their academic careers and beyond. Mentors often have had similar career paths and can serve as counselors in academics, career planning and in networking. Many scholars and mentors have established long-lasting, supportive relationships from this program.